What is this type of insurance?

Private Motor Excess Protection is a financial loss insurance contract which is designed to reimburse your policy excess following a successful claim on your private motor insurance. You decide on the amount of cover you require, subject to the maximum amount payable under this insurance.

What is insured?

- ✓ Repayment of your primary insurance policy excess following a successful claim under your private motor policy, up to the maximum policy limit you have selected.

What is not insured?

There is no cover:

- ✗ If your claim under your primary insurance policy was declined, or was for an amount less than the policy excess.
- ✗ Where the amount contributed by you or deducted from the settlement of your primary insurance claim is not clearly stated in your primary insurance policy documents as being the excess.
- ✗ Where the primary insurance policy claim relates to the repair or replacement of glass, including windscreens.
- ✗ Where you fail to provide all relevant information or documents to us in support of your claim under this policy.
- ✗ Where the claim on the primary insurance policy happened before the start date of this Private Motor Excess Protection policy.
- ✗ Where the claim on the primary insurance policy occurred within the first 14 days of the start date of this Private Motor Excess Protection policy, unless this policy is taken out at the same time as the primary insurance policy.

Are there any restrictions on cover?

The following key criteria also applies to the whole policy:

- ! You must be a permanent resident of the United Kingdom;
- ! You must be aged 18 or over; and
- ! You must be named as the policyholder or joint policyholder under your primary insurance policy as well as the policyholder or joint policyholder under this policy.
- ! Cover applies to private motor policies if the vehicle covered by that policy:
  - is registered with the DVLA;
  - has no more than seven (7) seats, including the driver's seat;

Where am I covered?

You are covered for the repayment of your private motor insurance policy excess where the event that leads to a claim on the private motor insurance policy occurs in the United Kingdom.

What are my obligations?

You must:

- keep to the terms and conditions of the policy;
- co-operate fully with us and provide any relevant information, documentation and evidence in connection with a claim; and
- notify us of any claim as soon as your primary insurance claim has been settled and in any event, within 30 days of settlement.

When and how do I pay?

The premium for this insurance policy is payable to the insurance intermediary who is selling you this insurance policy before the intended start date (unless paid by monthly instalments).

The insurance intermediary who is selling you this insurance policy will confirm the total amount payable, payment dates and any available payment options.

When does the cover start and end?

Unless otherwise agreed, your cover will last for one year, starting from the date specified in your policy schedule.

How do I cancel the contract?

You can cancel this insurance policy by notifying the person who sold you this insurance policy within 14 days of either the start date or the date you receive your policy documents, whichever is later. Providing no claims have been made during the current period of insurance, the premium will be refunded in full.

You can cancel at any other time by giving the person who sold you this insurance policy 7 days' notice, however there will be no refund of premium
